

V.O.I.C.E.(S) DID YOU KNOW THAT...

MOST PEOPLE DON'T LIKE THEIR JOB?

MOST PEOPLE DON'T HAVE A PURPOSE?

MOST PEOPLE FEEL LIKE THEY HAVE A BOOK INSIDE OF THEM?

MOST PEOPLE KNOW SOMEONE THAT IS WRITING A SCREENPLAY?

MOST PEOPLE ARE AFRAID TO TAKE A CHANCE?

MOST PEOPLE HAVE "REAL" JOBS.

WHY DO SOME PEOPLE SUCCEED?

WHAT STORY ARE THEY TELLING?

WHAT VOICE IS IN THEIR HEAD?

V.O.I.C.E.(S)

A TOOL FOR YOUR SCREENPLAY & YOUR LIFE

V VOICES & VISION

What is your family's voice? What is their history of storytelling, mental games, etc - positive and negative. What voice did they nurture? Fear or possibility? How has this influenced your self talk? How does it your view of the world?

What is a phrase that you say a lot that you learned from someone else?

O OPINIONS & OPTIONS

How has the voice of your family manifested into opinions and options? Do you see solutions or problems? Do you quit after the first try or see new options? Do you see circumstance or possibility?

What is an opinion you have that has changed in the last few days, months, weeks and/or years?

I IMAGINARY FRIENDS & IMAGINATION

Did you have an imaginary friend(s)? Describe them. What purpose did they serve? Did they lift you up or ground you? Did they become a voice in your head? Are they still with you? How do they manifest? Do you talk to yourself? Are you your own imaginary friend? Do you listen to yourself? What's your tone? How do you use your imagination?

What is something you say to/about yourself on a regular basis?

C

CONTENT & CHOICE

Do your thoughts guide your choices? Can your choices influence your content? Can they work together?

How can you turn something you believe in into something that can help another person?

E

EMBRACE & EVOLVE

Let the voices lose. Learn about yourself. Learn to love yourself. Invite them to dinner. Take them in the car with you. Have conversations. Make them your imaginary friends. Don't worry about people listening. There is always someone that will relate to you. You are unique to you. The more "you" you are, the more people will relate to you.

Who is someone you admire that shares your views? How can you listen more to your own thoughts?

S

SMILE & SHARE

Have fun with this. Allow the voices to take you to new places. Keep them in your pocket. Carry them with you. Ask what they think about your daily activities. Ask yourself, "What would "my other me" do?" . Laugh out loud. Laugh often. Laugh at yourself.

How will you share this new idea, opinion or voice?

CREATE YOUR VISION

How will others respond to your voices?

If you speak to everyone, you'll speak to no one.

Let the voices speak through you and to your clients.

Business is service. Let the voices create your business.

The world is changing.

Authenticity is the key.

People are turning to people. Be that person.

PEOPLE WILL TURN TO YOU.
